

New Academic Leaders Series

Fall, 2015

Friday, August 14 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Full-day kickoff workshop, featuring an overview of programs and resources available through the Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost, with the four Vice Provosts, information on faculty affairs and academic leadership, day-one business and financial management, an academic leaders panel discussion, and focused discussion on leadership. The day will end with a reception with Deans, Vice Presidents, and program nominators.

Thursday, September 3 1:00 – 3:30 pm

“Your Leadership Toolkit” – it all starts with articulating a vision, then linking it to strategic planning. This session will also share information about resources for leaders found on our website and around the university.

Thursday, September 17 1:00 – 3:30 pm

A “Conversation with the President and Provost,” will highlight updates, strategies, and leadership perspective from our senior-most academic leaders.

Thursday, October 1 1:00 – 3:30 pm

“Your Management Toolkit” – tools, resources, and practices to support the management demands of your role.

Thursday, October 15 1:00 – 3:30 pm

Leadership Communication: leveraging transparency, courageous conversations, and influencing for results.

Thursday, November 5 1:00 – 3:30 pm

Data-based decision making supports strategic management and leadership needs. A panel of current department heads will discuss their strategies and answer questions.

Thursday, November 19 1:00 – 3:30 pm

Leadership Facilitation: Your role in advancing motivation, engagement, and collaboration.

Thursday, December 3 1:00 – 3:30 pm

Faculty Recruiting, Retention, and Development – Strategies, resources, and approaches from the Provost’s Office Faculty Affairs team, designed to maximize your effectiveness in meeting faculty needs.